GUIDE AND INVENTORY TO THE SUBJECT FILE

INTRODUCTION AND RELATIVE INDEX

The file folders are alphabetized by subject. The file contains a built-in relative index. The term "See also:" refers the reader to additional alphabetized titles bearing on the same subject content. The term "See:" refers to the location in the file where the material is actually located. If a file being referenced is written in capital and lower case letters the material being referenced is in this Subject File. If the material is all capital letters the notation refers to a file separate from this Subject File. An "n.d." in place of a specific date indicates that no date could be determined at the time of inventory.

Examples:

Badges:

n.d.

Dogs

See: K-9

FILE CONTENTS

Each subject folder may contain written material, (letters, certificates, newspaper clippings, etc.) photographs, and negatives. Photographs of one individual are located in the PEOPLE FILE. Photographs of an entire Police Academy Class are located in the ACADEMY FILE. Formal photographs of specific groups of individuals are filed under Watch, etc. to specific Units and Squads. These will all be found under Watches.

Two file series from the Inspectional Services Division are located in this Subject File. These are: "Studies and Surveys of the SPD" and "Research Requests and Research Reports." When applicable, examine each of these headings for pertinent subjects under these headings.
